

SANDRA JOSEPH BIO

Sandra Joseph is a history-making Broadway star; she holds the record as the longest-running leading lady in the longest-running Broadway show of all time. For ten years and more than 1,500 performances, Sandra starred as Christine - the female lead - in Andrew Lloyd Webber's smash hit, The Phantom of the Opera.

Sandra knew she wanted to sing and act on stage from the time she was eight years old, but her crippling self-doubt and paralyzing stage fright nearly kept her from ever pursuing her passion. Over time, Sandra found her voice and developed the courage to share it— both on stage and in life.

Sandra is currently on a mission to empower other people's voices. Her extraordinary journey of transforming her own life from being an insecure kid in Detroit who chickened out of her first solo to becoming a world-class performer whom Oprah calls “a Broadway legend” fuels the message she brings to audiences as an author, speaker, and workshop facilitator.

She has been seen on numerous national broadcasts including The Oprah Winfrey Show, CNN, The Today Show, Dateline, The Early Show, The View, and most recently, Oprah: Where Are They Now?

Along with 5-time New York Times bestselling author, Caroline Myss, Sandra is the co-author of Your Creative Soul: Expressing Your Authentic Voice.

In Sandra's one-of-a-kind, entertaining keynote, she uses songs and stories to inspire audiences to reach for their highest level of performance in life and business. Clients include eBay, Million Dollar Round Table, and MetLife, to name a few.

The workshops and retreats Sandra leads across the country empower others to hear their inner voice with clarity and conviction and to express their outer voice with courage and authenticity.

Sandra is a member of the Transformational Leadership Council, an invitation-only group of 135 of the world's top thought leaders in the fields of personal and professional development.

She continues to sing professionally as a soloist with symphony orchestras across the country, and as the founder of Sandra Joseph's Broadway All-Stars, she provides concert entertainment for corporate events and private parties.

Sandra is married to her co-star from The Phantom of the Opera, actor Ron Bohmer. They split their time between fast-paced New York City and laid-back southern California.
